

Who's going to Lihrednuht?

Posted by Litespeeds - 04 May 2009 23:48

Just curious as to who is planning on going to Lihrednuht at the end of this month 5/30-31. I am not planning on going because we always celebrate both my kids birthday that weekend with our families. I hope you guys can get at least 5 for this event.

I really don't know if I am going or not so don't count me as one of the 5 starters.

Isn't Greg going? I heard Rick might race on Saturday with Dan's car but that is undetermined yet.

My son is turning 12 on 5/30 and I really shouldn't be out racing on his actual b-day.

Augh! I can't make it work. Sorry guys. Well, one of Ron or Jerry will log his first win!

I'm about to sign up for Infineon right now...

So Jerry, is it just me and you or is Ken going to make it? What about Dan? I still haven't sorted out my front end issues, it's toe'd out one minute and not the next. Everything's tight so I'm not sure what's going on but I'll be there regardless.

Ron
