Tyler had his cast removed last Wed for his broken ankle, and the # 4 will be at Buttonwillow friday to scrub some tires and run a few laps in the afternoon. will not be running the enduro on Sat night thou.

Wow...I didn't know he broke his ankle. Sorry to hear that and I hope the test Friday goes well. Speaking from experience, don't rush an ankle recovery. Give it more time than you think to mend...He'll be glad that he did when he's 40!
