

FS: (FL) 1983 944 with 88 drivetrain

Posted by Uffitz56 - 30 Nov 2011 09:03

Hey guys,

I was really hoping to get in to 944spec racing in the near future. Bought my 944 from Tony Heyer @Heyer performance in San Francisco about 6 months ago. I have only taken it to one track day and didn't have a single issue with it. I am being laid off in the next month or so which means I have to put racing on the back burner for a few years. I had a while longer to go in HPDE before I could even get my competition license anyway. Please see the nasa add for pics and video. Email me at uffitz56 at aol with any questions. Thanks!

Thanks for the kind words! Don't worry Joe I am not in a dying to sell it just yet so I might be at Sebring in March. Just figured since I still have a ways to go doing DE's I might just use my DD for hpde's and sell the touareg and 944. Not very cost effective for as little as I am able to go to the track! I will keep in touch.

Best,

Fitz
