Who wants to be an exhibitionist ? Posted by SvoChuck - 18 Apr 2008 10:43
Get ready Race Fans! We are going into the heart of knuckle draggers! For some FREE racing! I'm still working on the details but plan on it being a sponsor paying, NASA race for 944-SPEC! We will also be able to show off the cars to all of the crowd before and after the nights races.
So get out those mud flaps and mullet wigs . It's going to be FUN!

More details to come, and YES I am working this for Colorado National Speedway also.
This will also really help on sponsor search due to the number of fans that will see our cars!

have a couple extra RA1s to burn up on the right side of the car. Sounds like fun!
