Convoy to Gateway Posted by SvoChuck - 22 Apr 2008 17:11
Dirks and I are heading out Thursday around 5-6 pm and will meet up with Weston on I-70 (time will depend on when Weston can make it). There is a group of truck stops outside of Denver we will be stopping at if we need to other wise we can just adjust our speed to form a nice "convoy", And driving to Salina (about half way). We will be sleeping at the Flying J Truck stop parking lot in Salina KS Thursday night.
Dave White will be heading out Thursday before noon and then staying in a Hotel near Salina .
Friday AM we will depart Salina and drive on to Gateway. Dirks and I teach a comp school class Friday night.
Dirks will have like 3 color maps of how to get there.
So what is your plan ?
Yes I also sent this to our Yahoo group but I want to make sure everyone gets the info.

we need to swap a couple of cell phone numbers to make the convoy easier mine's on yahoo thread.
